

Haze

Sarah Klang

Watch you while you are sleeping
Wonder what you are dreaming about
Dreaming about
See you crying in the shower
Wonder what you are crying about
Crying about

I said you find me in this haze, make me scream your name
You, lounging for your touch, is it asking for too much?

Watch you while you are speaking
Wonder what you are talking about
Talking about
Watch you while you are leaving
Wonder what I am crying about
Crying about

I said you find me in this haze, make me scream your name
You, lounging for your touch, is it asking for too much?

And I roll around in bed at night
And I try and try to figure things out
And I hate myself for needing you
And I hate to feel so sad and blue

You, find me in this haze, make me scream your name
You, lounging for your touch, is it asking for too much?
You find me in this haze, make me scream your name
You, lounging for your touch, is it asking for too much?

You
You
You, lounging for your touch, is it asking for too much?
Ooh
