

U Want Me 2

Sarah Mclachlan

You walk on by
Clueless and so high
Following your aimless path
Away from us

You're so far away
And what can I say?
'Cause I can't be the one
You wanted me to be

So tell me, how do you feel?
It's so confusing
If you let it all go
It'll fall apart

Do you want me to stay
And say I still want you?
You want me to
Don't you?

So what are we saying?
Our Eden's a failure?
A made up story to fit
A picture perfect world?

The one with I do
And I love you
And we are made for each other
Is forever over now?

So tell me, how do you feel?
It's so confusing
If you let it all go
It'll fall apart

Do you want me to stay
And say I still want you?
You want me to
Don't you?

I hope there's forgiveness
In the distance between us
Can't we make what lies ahead of us
A better place to be?

So tell me, how do you feel?
It's so confusing
If you let it all go
It'll fall apart

Do you want me to stay
And say I still want you?
You want me to
Don't you?
