

Mighty Wave

Sarah Reeves

You know me in and out and lovely are Your thoughts about me.
How great is mercy. You chose me though I am unworthy.
All that is within me - cries You are holy.

Even when I'm walking through the valley of death.
Even when I'm broken and nothing is left - You lead me on... Yo u lead me on

So I'll pour my tears in the ocean. And I'll leave my pain by t he shore.
With Your mighty wave You'll sweep them away, till they are no more.

You hide me - in Your wings and carry, - all my fears and worri es - You lift the lowly.
You wrap me in your arms of safety - When the battle's raging - You're fighting for me.

Even when I'm walking through the valley of death.
Even when I'm broken and nothing is left - You lead me on... Yo u lead me on

So I'll pour my tears in the ocean. And I'll leave my pain by t he shore.
With Your mighty wave You'll sweep them away, till they are no more.

There's freedom from my past - And there's hope in my future
You are my today and You are my forever

So I'll pour my tears in the ocean And I'll leave my pain by th e shore.
And with a mighty wave You'll sweep them away, till they are no more.
You'll sweep them to the ocean floor.
