

Speechless

Sarah Reeves

I've been fighting for words to say
Been chasing the rhymes to make
But Your love is far too great, oh
This song is not enough to articulate my love
No, nothing could be enough, oh

My heart is sinking deep
Wandering in Your sea
I'm just lost in Your majesty, oh
Running like waterfalls
Melodies flood my soul
On the brink of an overflow

Completely astounded
Awestruck, I'm dumbfounded
You leave me completely speechless
Completely astounded
Awestruck, I'm dumbfounded
You leave me completely speechless

It's impossible to write
More than I could describe
Just how You've changed my life, oh
I've been fighting for words to say
Been chasing the rhymes to make
But Your love is far too great

Completely astounded
Awestruck, I'm dumbfounded
You leave me completely speechless
Completely astounded
Awestruck, I'm dumbfounded
You leave me completely speechless

Mmm

Completely astounded
Awestruck, I'm dumbfounded
You leave me completely speechless
Completely astounded
Awestruck, I'm dumbfounded
You leave me completely speechless

Completely astounded
Awestruck, I'm dumbfounded
You leave me completely...
