

I've Got Some Crying To Do

Sarah Vaughan

Guess I'll just sit home tonight
I've got some crying to do
No more excuses tonight
I've got some crying to do
So many letters to burn
Some books to return
And that isn't all
I'm gonna send back the ring
I got last fall

I'll hope nobody drops in
I hope the phone doesn't ring
It's time for tears to begin
And to put an end to this thing
So let me bid love goodbye
And have a good cry
And maybe I'll smile when I'm through
I've got some crying to do
Over you

I hope nobody drops in
I hope the phone doesn't ring
It's time for tears to begin
And put an end to this thing
So let me bid love goodbye
And have a good cry
And maybe I'll smile when I'm through
I've got some crying to do
Over you
