

Snowbound

Sarah Vaughan

Here we are
Helplessly snowbound
Too alone
Lost in the storm

And though the wind cries all around us
Still our love keeps us warm

Unafraid
Unafraid, snowbound together
Here with love locked in our arms

And if the world never, never should find us
In our hearts
We don't care
For so deep, for so deep is our love

And if the world never should find us
In our hearts
We don't care
For so deep is our love
