Thanks for the Ride

Sarah Vaughan

```
You taught my heart
How to fly
Then we got lost in the sky
For you let me down
Now I'm back on the ground
Baby, thanks for the ride

The thrill your lips
Gave to me
Made me so blind
I couldn't see
To you, it was fun
Kiss and run
Baby, thanks for the ride

I know, I've been a fool
To pretend you have flown
But still, I've been a fool once again
If you called
If only you called

I'd tell these tears in my eyes
That it's too late to be wise
And though, I sit here with the empty feeling inside
I can't hide
Let me say, baby thanks
Thanks for the ride
```
