Sarah

Why me, just when I believed I had control
Something tugging on my heart
Not letting go
But I ... I just can't lie ... about it
My ... my feelings for you
There's nothing I can do
Close oh I want to be
Close you by my side
Close I'm dreaming of you right now
I want you close
I want you close
Why you
This is something I'll never understand
It's so cruel to love someone that you
Can never have
But I ... I just can't lie ... about it
My ... my feelings for you

There's nothing I can do
Close oh I want to be
Close you by my side
Close I'm dreaming of you right now
I want you close
I know I gotta be strong
Guess I should be moving on
But if you ever find yourself thinking of me
And you're free
Than I'll want you to be
Close oh I want to be
Close still by my side
Close I'm dreaming of you right now
Right now
Close
Close you by my side
Close I'm dreaming of you right now
I want you close
I want you close
I want you close
