

New Guy

Sarkodie

That's why I wake up every morning
I grind, stand up and sun down
Wake up knowing that people expect me to lead 'em to a win
When times is tough they look at me for answers
Hoping I can lift 'em off from their fears and progress
So I grind, Sunday to Monday
Cos they ain't no role models
They ain't no true leaders left
So it's up to me to make sure the world knows that I'm that new guy
