Sasha Keable

Baby, I don't know who you are anymore
So I don't know what you callin' me for Expectin' I was just bound to ignore
All of your fuckeries, girl, we at war
Hate that you took my kindness for weakness
You burnt every bridge that's between us
Not sure what's really left to be said
It's simple

If you loved me
You would never hurt me
That's to put it simply
Whether we were lovers or just friends
If you hurt me
You would say you're sorry
'Stead you actin' cocky
If you wanted to, you would

Act right
Act like you know
To do better, really
Not just for show
Act right
But girl, we both know
That if you wanted to, you would
Oh

Baby, too long I thought that you had everything
Coulda gave your ass a wedding ring, girl
You fuckin' with my head
There's 'bout to be (Murder)
You playin' games that I ain't never even (Heard of)
You was the one that's always doin' the (Dirt up)
It's just simple, black and white

'Cause if you loved me
You would never hurt me
That's to put it simply
Whether we were lovers or just friends
If you hurt me
You would say you're sorry
'Stead you actin' cocky
If you wanted to, you would

Act right
Act like you know
To do better, really
Not just for show
Act right
But girl, we both know
That if you wanted to, you would

(Act right)
Do-do-do-do, you better act right, yeah
