

Mr Always Impatient

Sasha Keable

You think I didn't call, when I said that I would, 'cause I'm going through things with my man
When you couldn't get through, most people would stop
But from you, I'd expect nothing less

No, it's not a mistake when I push you away
Even though I got plenty of time
I don't wanna be rude, but it's not getting through
So expect the excuses tonight

Stop calling, Mr Always Impatient
I'll keep you waiting 'til I decide
Stop calling me, Mr Overexcited
I'll set you right if you call one more time
If you call one more time

You think I don't reply, 'cause I'm out with my friends
Getting carried away once again
But the truth of it is, I've been sat here all day
Watching my phone as it rang

No, it's not a mistake when I push you away
Even though I got plenty of time
I don't wanna be rude, but it's not getting through
So expect the excuses tonight

Stop calling, Mr Always Impatient
I'll keep you waiting 'til I decide
Stop calling, Mr Overexcited
I'll set you right if you call one more time
If you call one more time

No, it's not a mistake when I push you away
Even though I got plenty of time
I don't wanna be rude, but it's not getting through
So expect the excuses tonight

Stop calling, Mr Always Impatient
I'll keep you waiting 'til I decide
Stop calling me, Mr Overexcited
I'll set you right if you call one more time
Stop calling, Mr Always Impatient
I'll keep you waiting 'til I decide
Stop calling me, Mr Overexcited
I'll set you right if you call one more time
