

Nice Side

Sasha Keable

The day seemed long, I'm writing off my sorrows
Who never come till my mind's gone hollow
You're making me question my every move
I owe it all, owe it all to you
Got the feeling you never wanted me around
I'll be leaving, cause your nice side was something I never found
I was under your spell, you had me
Feeling like I wasn't good enough to be

Thought you coulda been the one for a minute
But you don't know love when you're in it
Thought you coulda been the one for a minute
Maybe that's why I over did it oh

Thought you coulda been the one for a minute
But you don't know love when you're in it
Thought you coulda been the one for a minute
Maybe that's why I over did it oh

Held us apart for so long
Never doubt I was wrong
But when I'm losing myself, I'm risking my health, the pain won't go away
It's about time that I call it a day

Thought you coulda been the one for a minute
But you don't know love when you're in it
Thought you coulda been the one for a minute
Maybe that's why I over did it oh

Thought you coulda been the one for a minute
But you don't know love when you're in it
Thought you coulda been the one for a minute
Maybe that's why I over did it oh
