

Read My Mind

Sasha

Weaking up closing my eyes again
Struck by the misery
Lying there paralyzed,
Seems that our storage is empty
Falling back on the ground
Once again tongue tied and twisted
It's harder to realize heaven was close
When you missed it.

I should break the silence today...
But my words won't find their way.

Read my mind
Can't you feel that I'm
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Sleepless nights, but I know it's right
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)

Look around now and then everyone's
Running in circles
Time after time you've been trying
To break through my surface.

Sorry I failed to tear down the walls
Over and over
Making up alibis
Was just a long road to nowhere.

Read my mind
Can't you feel that I'm
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Sleepless nights, but I know it's right
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)

It's too late I won't back down
After all, there's no way out
(fading in, fading out)
It's too late...
(day after day)
I won't back down
(breaking up, moving on)
After all
(lose and replace)
There's no way out

Read my mind.
Can't you feel that I'm
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Sleepless nights, but I know it's right
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)

Read my mind
Can't you feel that I'm
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Sleepless nights, but I know it's right
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
Leaving you!
(talk about it, talk about it)
