Present

Sass Jordan

Time is passing like a river
And all you want to do is hold it
But somehow what you grasp evades your touch

I'll be waiting to remind you
That all you are is clear perfection
The light surrounds you like a second skin

I love you as my closest friend
I hold you as my dearest one
These human walls cannot contain your soul

So time is just a grand illusion
And all you are is in this moment
Eternity is always here with us
The present is a gift for me and you
