

Someone I Could Love

Sass Jordan

Rome's on fire for the day
Paris was burning anyway
London is starting to fall down
That's why I been living in this cold grey town
No one else around

Now it's time I'm so afraid to leave
I'm so scared fear is holding me
Now it's time for me to learn to be Someone I could like - someone I could .

Love has left me standing here
Filling up suitcases with fear
Nothing is sacred in these small minds
What I been calling love I wanna leave behind - just leave it a ll behind

I believed in fairytales
Prince to save me from the boring details
Courage chased the prince right out the door
Courage is what I need more
