

Forgotten Graves

Satanic Warmaster

a breath from an open coffin the stench of fear in darkness a living corpse has risen from it's rest to remind of once forgotten graves a vampire cursed to lay unconsecrated in restless sleep in putrid soil fullmoon's eyes reveal the terror of he who only walks by night possessed by darkness

cursed by the light
vampiric evil is born
from forgotten graves

when suddenly all candles are snuffed and the wind stands silent and still you stand alone awaiting your death the vampire appears to kill

from forgotten graves
