

Athena

Satin Jackets

Some days all of the lights turn red
Feels like we ain't going nowhere
Feels like we ain't going nowhere
Other days we paint this town in red
There's nowhere else but right here
There's nowhere else but right here

All that I wanted, all that I needed was to meet the one
All that I wanted was your love
All that I wanted, all that I needed was to feel alive
I wanted to feel like I was home

Oh to see her
Beautiful in blue and white
Oh Athena you're mine tonight
Oh to feel her
Baby you're my morning light
Oh Athena we run tonight

Some days when the sky's electric blue
We're hopelessly romantic
And taking it all for granted
Summer nights when nobody wants to sleep
We're floating on this island
And hiding to find the silence

All that I wanted, all that I needed was to meet the one
All that I wanted was your love
All that I wanted, all that I needed was to feel alive
I wanted to feel like I was home

Oh to see her
Beautiful in blue and white
Oh Athena you're mine tonight
Oh to feel her
Baby you're my morning light
Oh Athena we run tonight

Oh to see her
Beautiful in blue and white
Oh Athena you're mine tonight
Oh to feel her
Baby you're my morning light
Oh Athena we run tonight
