

Count On You

Satin Jackets

I'm not taking sides
I can see it's black and white
And you were right, I see it now
The fault was mine

Still I count on you
Stay up, I'm right here
I'm keeping you close
Take a chance, take a step, meet me here
Still I count on you
Stay up, I'm right here
I'm keeping you close
Take a chance, take a step, meet me here

I was hypnotized
Blind by reasons I can't find
And forgetting why
I see them now, the flaws I hide

Still I count on you
Stay up, I'm right here
I'm keeping you close
Take a chance, take a step, meet me here
Still I count on you
Stay up, I'm right here
I'm keeping you close
Take a chance, take a step, meet me here
