

Electric Blue

Satin Jackets

You keep saying that you wanna go
There's no place you'd rather see

Watching the snow, underneath the pines
Takes you back, takes you back, to me

And is it enough? to say what you need to say
Dreams coming through, there's a place you'll always be

Do do do do do, do do do do do, do
It feels electric blue
Do do do do do, do do do do do do,
It feels electric blue

Electric, electric blue, it feels electric blue
Electric, electric blue, it's all that I can do
Electric, electric blue, it feels electric blue
Electric, electric blue, it's all that I can do

And when you're dreaming it won't let you go
There's a place you'll always be
And like a heartbeat it can drive you mad
You remember what you had

What you lost, to free yourself again
Dreams that you built, there's a place you'll always be

Do do do do do, do do do do do, do
It feels electric blue
Do do do do do, do do do do do do
It feels electric blue

Electric, electric blue, it feels electric blue
Electric, electric blue, it's all that I can do
Electric, electric blue, it feels electric blue
Electric, electric blue, it's all that I can do

I try to hold it, I try to hold it
Underneath the pines, underneath the pines

Do do do do do, do do do do do, do
Do do do do do, do do do do do do
It feels electric blue

Electric, electric blue, it feels electric blue
Electric, electric blue, it's all that I can do
Electric, electric blue, it feels electric blue
Electric, electric blue, it's all that I can do
