

For Days

Satin Jackets

I see it in your eyes
I find it hard
To sympathize
I hear it in your words
Though you try
You tried hard
It's so obvious
But I'll take the blame
You should have been stronger
Kept to our plan
We're just a shame
Start to wonder

Oh you been talking
Oh you been talking
For days
For days
'Cause you been talking
Oh you been talking
Get talking for this
For days

I know you have a way
With words
But I have to say
I'm hurt
You play the part
Of the scorned so well
But I'm no fool
I can tell

I can see it in your eyes
I find it hard
To sympathize
I hear it in your words
Though you try
You tried hard
It's so obvious
But'll I take the blame
You should have been stronger
Kept to our plan
We're just a shame
Start to wonder

You been talking
Oh you been talking for days
For days
'Cause you been talking
Oh you been talking
For days
For days
You been talking
Oh you been talking
For days
For days
'Cause you been talking
Oh you been talking

For days
For days

It's so obvious
But I'll take the blame
You should have been stronger
Kept to our plan
But we're just a shame
Start to wonder

Oh you been talking
Oh you been talking
For days
For days
'Cause you been talking
Oh you been talking
For days
For days
You been talking
Oh you been talking
For days
For days
'Cause you been talking
Oh you been talking
For days
For days
