Satin Jackets

When we're good, we're good
When we're good, we're good

Overthinking every single part about us
Building ideas out of air
Over analyze our flaws and all our angles
I can't get it out of my head

When we're good, we're good
Only me and you
And when we're low, we're real low
And it fucks up the picture
But when we're good, we're good

All I wanted was to stay in this illusion
Without knowing we're imperfect just the way we are
Was it me, was it you, or just someone we could blame instead
'Cause all I wanted was to stay in this illusion

All we do is throwing words and empty bottles
We're the best at fooling hearts
Once I thought of us as more than hopeless lovers
It was only a mirage

When we're good, we're good
Only me and you
And when we're low, we're real low
And it fucks up the picture
But when we're good, we're good

All I wanted was to stay in this illusion
Without knowing we're imperfect just the way we are
Was it me, was it you, or just someone we could blame instead
'Cause all I wanted was to stay in this illusion

When we're good, we're good
Only me and you, ooh
And when we're good, we're good
And when we're low, we're real low, mmh

When we're good, we're good
Only me and you, ooh
And when we're good, we're good
And when we're low, we're real low, mmh

All I wanted was to stay in this illusion
Without knowing we're imperfect just the way we are
Was it me, was it you, or just someone we could blame instead
'Cause all I wanted was to stay in this illusion
