

No Bullshit

SAULT

Don't die trying, to get by
It will be alright, if you go to Golden Eye
Even though sometimes, I know, it feels like you're in the wrong life, and it hurts you deep inside

You heard me on the radio
Well now you love yourself the higher you go
They say you're fine, people what do they know?
They know, they know
They say you're fine, people what do they know?
They know, they know

Can't fuck with me, 'cause I know the real things are free, can't bullshit me
Ain't losing sleep
I don't want your mind disease, no bullshit please
Can't fuck with me, 'cause I know the real things are free, can't bullshit me
Ain't losing sleep
I don't want your mind disease, no bullshit please
(Bullshit, please)

Real tears don't dry, fuse your muse
Sometimes I'm so sad, I left to hide in my dreams
Why would I compromise before opening my eyes?
I'd rather take the stairs, and [?] make it [?]
