

Uncomfortable

SAULT

Maybe you're uncomfortable with the fact we're waking up
How do you turn hate to love, how do you turn hate to love?
Maybe you're uncomfortable with the fact we're waking up
Why do you keep shooting us, why do you keep shooting us?

Oh the way that you judge me, this is madness
Oh, I'm praying, I'm hoping, believing, in God's magic
Oh every day is dangerous for me, internal sadness
Oh I'm praying, I'm hoping, believing, in God's magic

Maybe you're uncomfortable with the fact we're waking up
Why do you keep shooting us, how do you turn hate to love?
Maybe you're uncomfortable with the fact we're waking up
Why do you keep shooting us, how do you turn hate to love?

Maybe you're uncomfortable with the fact we're waking up
Why do you keep shooting us, how do you turn hate to love?
Maybe you're uncomfortable
