

Until the Shadows Fall

Savage Messiah

In days now spent
Time still laments
The things that we thought we'd represent
Forsaken if you had given to me
Promise of loss unto misery

If I could only see the way
But now it feels I'm

Falling, I can't hold on
The loss carries on
Until the shadows fall
Until there'll be no
Crawling, bury me now
In silence somehow
Until the shadows fall
Until there's no remorse

In days still left it feels like theft
To drive our lives into ruin and distress
Mistaken, I knew not hidden in me
Solace of fear unto sympathy

If I could only see the way
Or had the words to say
But I am surely free to stay
But now it feels I'm

Falling, I can't hold on
The loss carries on
Until the shadows fall
Until there'll be no
Crawling, bury me now
In silence somehow
Until the shadows fall
Until there's no remorse

Falling, I can't hold on
The loss carries on
Until the shadows fall
Until there'll be no
Crawling, bury me now
In silence somehow
Until the shadows fall
Until there's no remorse
No remorse
Until the shadows fall

Until the shadows fall
Until the shadows fall
Until the shadows fall
Until the shadows fall
