

Lost Lover

Savannah Conley

For all of the years that I've tried
To forget the way that you looked at me
For all of the years that I've tried
Somehow you always come back to haunt me

Mmm-mmm-mmm

Mmm-mmm-mmm

For all of the letters you wrote
That I threw in the flames just so I could let go
They stayed right here stuck in my heart
I just choose to forget you so I can move on

Mmm-mmm-mmm

Mmm-mmm-mmm

Hello, my lost lover
Why're you back so soon?
Hello, my lost lover
I thought that I'd gotten rid of you
Somehow you always slip through my guard again
Lost lover, how do you always win?

Hello, my lost lover
Why're you back so soon?
Hello, my lost lover
I thought that I'd gotten rid of you
But somehow you always slip through my guard again
Lost lover, how do you always win?
How do you always win?

For all of the years that I've tried
To forget the way that you looked at me
