

Sad in the Summer

Savannah Outen

If I would've known
If I had picked up on your tone (yeah)
We wouldn't be here
We wouldn't be laying here
Just starin' at the wall
Waitin' for you to get a call
So you got a reason to leave
Without makin' a thing about it

I thought I was free of you
And now the thought of you
It makes me sick and baby
I gotta tell you the truth
I've got this empty space
And here's the thing about it

I've been lookin' for somebody new
But keep endin' up here with you
Hate to admit that it's true
But I keep on
Believin' that someone like you
Could pull me right outta the blue
But, baby, I blink and it's june
And I'm just sad in the summer
In the summer
Baby, I'm so sad in the summer
In the summer
Baby, I'm so sad
So I've been here before
Pickin' myself up from the floor (yeah)
It's not a mistake
If it's happenin' everyday
I'd rather be alone
Give back his records and his clothes
Then hear him say "baby"
"I swear that I'm changin'"

I thought I was free of you
And now the thought of you
It makes me sick and baby

I gotta tell you the truth
I've got this empty space
And here's the thing about it

I've been lookin' for somebody new
But keep endin' up here with you
Hate to admit that it's true
But I keep on
Believin' that someone like you
Could pull me right outta the blue
But, baby, I blink and it's june
And I'm just sad in the summer
In the summer
Baby, I'm so sad in the summer
In the summer
Baby, I'm so sad

I've been feelin' like lately
You might just be a cravin'
I know that it's wrong, know that it's wrong
But, baby, don't it feel amazing?
I've been feelin' like lately
You might just be a cravin'
I know that it's wrong, know that it's wrong, know that it's wrong (yeah)

I've been lookin' for somebody new
But keep endin' up here with you
Hate to admit that it's true
But I keep on
Believin' that someone like you
Could pull me right outta the blue
But, baby, I blink and it's june
And I'm just sad in the summer
In the summer
Baby, I'm so sad in the summer
In the summer
Baby, I'm so sad
