Love

Save Face

So when you woke up in some other apartment
Did you forget my name?
When I tossed the photo that was sitting by my bed
I kept the frame

I guess it was involuntary, I get that it was just involuntary
But I don't know if I can keep this up, love
I can't even breathe
I got nothing worth waking up for now, so maybe I just won't

So tell me, baby, when you woke up in someone else's bed
Did you feel the same?
And when you were talkin' shit on AJ's porch
Did you curse my name?

I guess it was involuntary, I just don't get how that could be involuntary
I don't know if I can keep this up, love
I can't even breathe
I got nothing worth waking up for now, so maybe I just won't

I don't know if I can keep this up, love
