

Been weak all week
And now the blood from my gums
Is starting to coat my tongue
And stain my teeth

I don't wanna know how
I wound up in your car again
You think that I'd have better things
To do at 5 AM
So why don't you and I go
Make the same mistake again?
Apparently, I'd rather complicate my life
Than get some sleep
You know you make me weak
So weak

You will devour my heart
And you will let me starve
And I'll just sit there
Like I'm glued to my seat

I don't wanna know how
I wound up in your car again
You think that I'd have better things
To do at 5 AM
So why don't you and I go
Make the same mistake again?
Apparently, I'd rather complicate my life
Than get some sleep
You know you make me weak

Yeah, makes me weak, yeah
You make me weak

I don't wanna know how
I wound up in your car again
You think that I'd have better things
To do at 5 AM
So why don't you and I go
Make the same mistake again?
Apparently, I'd rather complicate my life
Than get some sleep
You know you make me weak
You know you make me weak, yeah
