

You know you mystify...

Consuming moments just like these,
I'm being broken down on my knees.
It's getting clear, what do I see?
I feel your love reaching out for me.
Oh, mirror, it's so clear,
That I'll run and disappear.
Mirror, mirror on the wall:
Who's the biggest fool of all?

Yeah...

You know you mystify me.
You bring a light to the life, I'm breathing.
Yeah...
You know you mystify...
You bring a light to the life, I'm living.

Why am I running from the past,
With all the memories that couldn't last?
So when you peek into my soul,
Why do I run, when you make me whole?
Mirror, mirror on the wall:
Who's the biggest fool of all?

Yeah...

You know you mystify me.
You bring a light to the life, I'm breathing.
Yeah...
You know you mystify...
You bring a light to the life, I'm living.

With no light, no sight, no eyes I see,
I can't help, I feel you reaching out for me.

Yeah...

Yeah...

You know you mystify me.
You bring a light to the life, I'm breathing.
Yeah...
You know you mystify...
You bring a light to the life, I'm living.

Yeah...

You know you mystify...
