Saviour Machine

It's the light that surrounds you The light that commands you to fight Fight to find the answer Fight to the door Through all eternal question Through vision of no more Tears of pain Fears insane Tears of pain Bring the reign My powers feed the streams My powers hold the dreams My love I lay upon you My eyes have seen the king Free the fighting within you The fighting may take you to Hell And Hell is all around us The Saviour lies within Within the soul the answer The dawn of life begins Touch the flame.
