

Cynical

Saviour

Haste away my dear
I have been stuck inside a dream
My cynical mind wanders
From the shine and fades into my fear
Of living for too long
So paint my name in vain

Show me the truth when I'm gone
Show me the path when I'm done
Show me the wars that I've won
Show me the way to move on
Show me the part I had fun

So show me the truth when I'm gone
Show me the path when I'm done
Show me the wars that I've won
Show me the way to move on
Show me the part I had fun

Behind this masquerade
The world burns on
In technicolour flames
After you're gone
Silent disarray
Our silent home
As our fair weather fades
It's all my fault...

Haste away my dear
I've been stuck in a dream
Where we keep falling forever
I've been stuck in a dream
Where we keep falling forever

So the less you know the less you fall
And we keep falling forever and ever and ever
As kingdom comes
Crashing down forever and ever and ever
As kingdom comes crashing

Waste another year
I have been stuck inside a dream
My cynical mind wanders
From the shine and fades into my fear
I have been here for too long
So paint my name in vain

Behind this masquerade
The world burns on
In technicolour flames
After you're gone
Silent disarray
Our silent home
As our fair weather fades
It's all my fault...

It's all my, it's all my, it's all my fault...

It's all my, it's all my, it's all my fault...
It's all my, it's all my, it's all my fault...
It's all my, it's all my, it's all my fault...
It's all my, it's all my, it's all my fault...
It's all my, it's all my, it's all my fault...
