

Modern Curse

Saviour

Cherish the seeds
Bloom into memories
Rest me at ease
Cause nothing ever ends up how you plan it

Maybe I'm just wasting time
Inside this modern curse
Instead of better friends of mine

Maybe I'm just wasting time
Inside this modern curse (Modern curse)

Cherish everything you hold so dear
Never let go
Never forget that

One by one they slowly disappear
Maybe let go
Maybe they'll come back

The moments flow through the window
But I am not so torn
I am not so broken now

Cherish everything you hold so dear
Never let go

Render my dreamscapes to my bones
Intertwine my elations eternally
So they can never escape me
So they can never escape me
Or falter

So shatter my bones when I rest
Disassemble me
Ration my faith with my friends
With my family

Eradicate the enemy in me
And the sorrow
Take the best of me

Take the best of me

Learn, for I have learnt
The bright side of me is something I could be
For I have learnt
I am not so broken

Maybe I'm just wasting time
Inside this modern curse
Instead of better friends of mine

Maybe I'm just wasting time
Inside this modern curse
Instead of better friends of mine

Cherish everything you hold so dear
Never let go
Never forget that

One by one they slowly disappear
Maybe let go

The moments flow through the window
But I am not so torn

Cherish everything you hold so dear
Never let go
