

Reshape Me

Saviour

Drown into my violent ocean
Pick apart my selfish notions
And breathe until you someday break free
Pick apart and reshape me

I hear the heartbeats through the silent crowd
Why don't you show me how?
Complicated and cunning
They mean nothing

Make me patient
Make me want to be here
Because I fucking don't
Make me confident in my skin
And less outspoken
Give me strength to burn on
And depths like the ocean
Spread me through fountains
Taller than mountains

Spread me through fountains
Taller than mountains

Break me and reshape me
Into a vase so I can hold you close
Until I'm empty
Break me and reshape me
Into an ocean you could lose yourself
Until I'm empty

Drain my sorrow and blood
Until I am empty
Too a scar from a cut
So reshape me

Stories cover our skin
Just like a fracture on a vase
Bittersweet hindsight
Feels like we wasted days

We are youthful at heart
Each time these words are shaking all alone
Worlds fall apart
Can you reshape me
Can you make me
Brighter than starlight
Hopeful like dawn
Why don't you break me
Break me
And reshape me

Spread me through fountains
Taller than mountains

Break me and reshape me
Into a vase so I can hold you close
Until I'm empty

Break me and reshape me
Into a vase so I can hold you close
Until I'm empty
Into an ocean you could lose yourself
Until I'm empty

Until I'm empty
