

All Gone Wrong

Savoy Brown

Pull down the shades, close the door
The past is over, won't be back no more
The memories, they'll fade in time
Like the old bells that used to chime

The future is gone
Time's moved on
It's all gone wrong
It's all gone wrong

Now my wheels need oil, they're turning slow
This train I'm on got nowhere to go
I'll take a walk, I've got nothin' to say
The rain falls down every night and day

I don't feel strong
My nights are long
It's all gone wrong
It's all gone wrong

I don't need company, I stay alone
Most of the time I don't answer the phone
There's nothing here to make me smile
It's been this way for too long a while

I don't belong
Now you're gone
It's all gone wrong
It's all gone wrong

Pull down the shades, close the door
The past is over, won't be back no more
The memories, they'll fade in time
Like the old bells that used to chime

The future is gone
Time's moved on
It's all gone wrong
It's all gone wrong
All gone wrong
It's all gone wrong

All gone wrong
It's all gone wrong
