

Don't Turn Me from Your Door

Savoy Brown

I'm a stranger
I'm a pilgrim
Traveling my world alone
I'm a stranger
I'm a pilgrim
Traveling my world alone

I'm begging you baby
Don't turn me from your door
Don't turn me from your door
Don't turn me from your door

I got nobody, baby
Tell my troubles to, now
I got nobody, baby
Tell my troubles to, now

Begging you, baby
Don't turn me from your door
Don't turn me from your door

Cried all night, baby
And this morning too, now
Cried all night, baby
And this morning too
Just trying to make some money, baby
And bring it home to you

Don't turn me from your door, baby
Don't turn me from your door, baby
Don't turn me from your door, baby
Cry, oh how I cried
Well, I cried, baby
Well, I cried, baby
Well, I cried
Well, I cried
Well, I cried
Cried, baby, cried
Cried, baby
Cried baby

When you see me coming, baby
Please, don't turn me away
See me coming, baby
Please, don't turn me away

'Cause I love you, baby
Don't turn me from your door
I'm begging you, baby
Don't turn me from your door
Don't turn me from your door
