Try your luck, bitch I came with gorillas
Bitch I came with gorillas

Got that drop then you can try your luck, bitch I came with gorillas
I'm not into talkin', if I see that boy then I'm a kill him
Thirty when I walk, I brought my bop when I came in the buildin',

Crodie topped his noggin, now that lil' boy swimmin' with the fishes

I put belt to ass on every block I dissed, bitch I'm a menace
He talkin' hot, I get that drop, then I'll come pepper up your section

Backpack full of guns, don't go to school, I walk with heavy metal

She said that she hate me, but don't want leave me, I'm the devil

I still oil up my 'Lizzys, treat my bitches very special

I still beat it 'til it lock, I get the drop then I go mental

Yeah, yeah and I don't even gotta lie

If a nigga play with savage, then a nigga gotta die

I'm a dangerous lil' nigga, don't leave the house without my nine

I'm on your block searchin' like Google, tryna catch one of your guys

And I got homicidal thoughts, I think 'bout murder all the time
I jump out leave some traumatized every time I'm inside a ride
Right now I got the city jumpin', just for fun, might start a riot

The spliff is hot, the grabba thumpin' Hitman, I won't even lie
I talked to OTD, he said you're gifted crodie, it's your time

I just started with this rappin' shit and labels tryna sign

I can't lie, I think if crodie seen this shit, then he would cry

Crodie told me do this rappin' shit, so I'm spazzin' everytime

I just hate that crodie died, but I still hear him all the time

And I don't even write no verses, punch me in, I'll say my line

And I don't think that I can cry no more, I cried too many times

And I don't think that he'll survive the blitz, got hit too many times

You want a perc, I'll give you options crodie, forty or the nine

I'm off a perc, I'm feelin' nauseous crodie, I think it took my mind

Got that drop then you can try your luck, bitch I came with gor
