

Ain't Goin' Out That Way

Sawyer Brown

Second floor, third door
On the right, just before
The broken down ice machine
Across the hall, through the wall
I can hear the party all night
I can't get no sleep
Pizza boxes stacked up
Jimmy's always jacked up
Been living on the couch all week

It's like I'm fading into nothing
Another ripple in the ocean
I just wanna feel something
Before I waste
One more day
I'm crying out but no one's hearing
No one can see me disappearing
Some people just live to die
And that's ok
But I ain't goin' out that way

Friday night they're getting high
Everybody's living life
One warm beer at a time
Dirty socks, X-Box
Jimmy's gone, change the locks
Before he gets back tonight
I ain't got a dime and
What have I been buying
This is where I draw the line

It's like I'm fading into nothing
Another ripple in the ocean
I just wanna feel something
Before I waste
One more day
I'm crying out but no one's hearing
No one can see me disappearing
Some people just live to die
And that's ok
But I ain't goin' out that way

It's like I'm fading into nothing
Another ripple in the ocean
I just wanna feel something
Before I waste
One more day
I'm crying out but no one's hearing
No one can see me disappearing
Some people just live to die
And that's ok
But I ain't goin' out that way

I ain't goin' out that way
