Sawyer Fredericks

You woke up and
No one was around and you're
Wondering if he just went on With his day
But you panicked and
Thought he was leaving
You never thought he'd do
Such things

So you went downstairs
Went down screaming
And hoping to see
His face
Nothing but tread marks
From his leaving, you're
Wondering if you'll see
Him again

Thought he loved you
And he never loved you
You will never be
The same
You will always be Afraid

You went inside and
Hoping to see him
Disappointed again
Hands are shaking, your
Heart is breaking
You know he's not
Coming back

Thought he loved you
And he never loved you
You will never be
The same
You will always be Afraid

Thought he loved you
And he never loved you
You will never be
The same
You will always be Afraid
