

Ain't Ya Proud

Sawyer Fredericks

Oh yes, the land is stolen ain't you proud to be here
Oh yes, the gun is smoking that's the air we're breathing
Oh yes, the land is stolen ain't you proud to be here
Oh yes, the gun is smoking and that's the air we're breathing

Those that say that we changed from our wicked ways
Are either lying or too blind to see
Land of the brave putting kids in cages
It's the price for the American dream

Oh yes, the land is stolen ain't you proud to be here
Oh yes, the gun is smoking that's the air we're breathing
Yes, the land is stolen ain't you proud to be here
Oh yes, the gun is smoking and that's the air we're breathing

All that you see
Wasn't built in a day, it was built by slaves
And only a stone's throw away
It's our mistake but it's the times we blame
Such a crime was all the rage
So villainly
We'll let our children die shouting pro life
As we give and take your rights

Oh yes, the land is stolen ain't you proud to be here
Oh yes, the gun is smoking that's the air we're breathing
Yes, the land is stolen ain't you proud to be here
Oh yes, the gun is smoking and that's the air we're breathing

Go breathe it in
Breathe it in
Go breathe it in
Breathe it in
Go breathe it in
