If I'm not broken
I'll only notice once I've broken you
So keep your love and
Don't wait for mine
Cause I'm a stable tomb

No need to
Waste your time
I love you
Let me cry

Don't want you
To take my scars
I want you
To tear me apart
So long you've
Kept me warm
I need you to let me be
Born

If I'm not broken
I'll only notice once I've broken you
And the hard cold truth is
The ones you love will turn their backs on you

No need to
Lose your mind
I love you
Let me cry

Don't want you
To take my scars
I want you
To tear me apart
So long you've
Kept me warm
I need you to let me be
