

Hide Your Ghost

Sawyer Fredericks

This life is full of monsters
The storm and tide has brought out the others
It's silent but war is calling
Sing of love and peace but don't ignore this

Lie little girl. Lie little girl
Hide your ghost
Lie little girl, lie little girl
Hide your hopes

Lie little girl. Lie little girl
Hide your ghost
Lie little girl, lie little girl
Hide your hopes

Isolated and invaded by the wolves you would not play with
All is stated and is made to be witnessed
And the tyrant has your life spent on the lies he feeds his kind with
And we all will suffer and all will die for the other
Yes we all will suffer and all will die for the other

So lie little girl, lie little girl
Hide your ghost
Lie little girl, lie little girl
Hide your hopes

So lie little girl, lie little girl
Hide your ghost
Lie little girl, lie little girl
Hide your hopes
