

How Beautiful

Sawyer Fredericks

My eyes open
Find you standing
Right here in front of me

How beautiful you are
With your eyes so familiar
How beautiful you are
And I don't know
But I've loved you
I know I've loved you before

So don't ask me why I'm here
'Cause I don't know
I was lost and I think I'm home

And this pain in my heart
'Cause you've hurt me
And I know I've hurt you, too

But don't ask me to leave
'Cause you're afraid
Of what it was
Or what might be

My eyes have opened
Find you standing
Right here in front of me

And I love you
I've known it too
You've been out of sight
But now I've found you

How beautiful you are
With your eyes so familiar
How beautiful you are
And I don't know
But I've loved you before

And this pain in my heart
'Cause you've hurt me
And I know I've hurt you, too

But don't ask me to leave
'Cause you're afraid
Of what it was
Or what might be

My eyes have opened
And how beautiful you are
