

Imposter at Heart

Sawyer Fredericks

I am a imposter at heart, lies over truth, snakes in the dark
I am a silent remark, biting my tongue in all I take part
With life truth is I'd rather be dead
I heard that all this shit goes straight to your head
Now I'd sooner live a life of regret
Then have the whole world think that I'm a part of this

Who's to say what my goal is
Give me hate like I hate it
Give me love like I love it
Nah, I'm as fake as my heart is

I am a imposter at heart
So innocent till guilty as charged
I am a silent remark
Grinding my teeth in all I take part
With life truth is I'd rather be dead
I heard that all this shit goes straight to your head
Now I'd sooner live a life of regret
Then have the whole world think that I'm a part of this

Who's to say what my goal is
Give me hate like I hate it
Give me love like I love it
Nah, I'm as fake as my heart is

I am a imposter at heart
Lies over truth, snakes in the dark
I am a silent remark
Biting my tongue in all I take part
With life the truth is I'd rather be dead

No, I ain't a part of this
This is y'all's shit
