

Stone

Sawyer Fredericks

Hey, my heart's turned to stone
It cannot break now
Hey, my heart's turned to stone

I give it to you, Darlin'
Do what you will, oh
Let it pull you down

Down to earth
With these walls around you
Darlin', you're free

Hey, my heart's turned to stone
Just like you, darlin'
Just one more statue in this
Cold, so cold, so cold

Say you're the one
I been searching for
Darlin', you're burnin'
Burning alive

But you ain't cryin'
Because you have
Felt this pain
Because you know
You know this game

You turned into stone
And you cannot break now
You turned into stone
Can you feel that weight now?

Darlin', I'm sorry
So disappointing
To you

To you
