

Stranger

Sawyer Fredericks

Stranger in my head, ain't nothing like him
Kicked me out and seems he's moved in
Stranger in my bed, something about him
Face he's showin', keeps on changing
Oh, am I changing? Oh, am I changing?

Please decide if me, not I, is who you love
If what you want is me, then I, I'll go

Stranger in my bed, why are you laughing?
Does my loving mean nothing?
I can't control him; he's not listening
For the last time dear, do you love him?
Do you love him? Do you love him?

Oh, please decide if me, not I, is who you love
If what you want is me, then I, then I'll go
Please decide if me, not I, is who you love
If what you want is me, then I, oh I'll go
Oh I, then I, I'll go
