

Fired

Say Anything

I got fired today
And I'm really sore about it frankly

They took my iPhone away
Unless I want to pay
My tongue is turning grey
I protest and I bray

I got fired today
From a prestigious marketing think tank

What's a think tank anyway
None of us were informed
I didn't even know
What they paid me for

And I can't be a bartender again
