

Ashes

SayWeCanFly

I found the sunlight
Somewhere in your eyes
Wish I had known back then
That when you told me
That this was goodbye
I'd never see you again

I know the stars still shine
And the moon still glows
But my heart still beats for you
And I wonder why you gave up this time
Maybe I just wasn't enough for you

But that's just the way of the world
Yeah, sometimes it hurts
But I know I just gotta keep holding on
'Cause there'll come a day when I finally find my words
And they will echo even after I'm gone
Hold on

I tried my hardest to cover my scars
But they took over again
But from the ashes
There rose a new spark
Made from the pieces of them

But that's just the way of the world
Yeah, sometimes it hurts
But I know I just gotta keep holding on
'Cause there'll come a day when I finally find my words
And they will echo even after I'm gone
Hold on

I found the sunlight
I found the sun
I found the sunlight
I found the sun

That's just the way of the world
Yeah, sometimes it hurts
But I know I just gotta keep holding on
'Cause there'll come a day when I finally find my words
And they will echo even after I'm gone
Hold on

I found the sunlight
Somewhere in your
