

Thought you were gonna be my savior
That maybe you would love me even when I'm ugly
But now I'm second guessin' if I need ya
Do I need, really need, do I really (really) need ya
Thought you were gonna be my grace, well
Predentin' that you love me even when I'm ugly
But now I'm second guessing who you're gonna be, love
Will I free, will I really really free ya

(I...)
Will I really really free ya
(I...)
Honestly I just wanted you to see me
(I...)
Will I really really free ya
(I...)
Honestly I just wanted you to see me

(Honestly I just want...
I just want...
Honestly I just wanted you to see me
Honestly I just want...
I just want...
Honestly I just wanted you to see me)

It's not you I need, it's caffeine, love
It's not you I need, you I need
Maybe in another life we'll try again
But now I need you to remember
It's not you I need, it's caffeine, love
It's not you I need, you I need (honestly I just wanted you to see me)

Well now I know the definition of insomnia
I just haven't been sleeping, but it's not really a problem 'cause
I make the best decisions when I'm drunk or when I'm coffeed up
It's not you I need, it's caffeine, it's caffeine, love
And sometimes I just really wanna know
Why the fuck you ever let me go (why you ever let me go)
Then I remember the color of all the blood that you were coughing up
And how it stained the bed
That's why I'm sleeping on the couch now

(I...)
That's why I'm sleeping on the couch now
(I...)
Honestly I just wanted you to see me
(I...)
That's why I'm sleeping on the, sleeping on the couch now
That's why I'm sleeping on the couch

(Honestly I just want...
I just want...
Honestly I just wanted you to see me
Honestly I just want...
I just want...
Honestly I just wanted you to see me)

It's not you I need, it's caffeine, love
It's not you I need, you I need
Maybe in another life we'll try again
But now I need you to remember
It's not you I need, it's caffeine, love
It's not you I need, you I need (honestly I just wanted you to see me)
