

Colorado - Unmasked

SayWeCanFly

Wasn't it enough that I came back home
Dropped what I was doing back in Colorado
I've been trying to find it in me not to lose my grip
Spending way too many dollars on a plane ticket, let's go

I got your favorite Starbucks drink
On top of that these flowers are the prettiest pink
Tried to do my hair this morning at the motel six
But now it's pouring rain and I look like shit

Your shift is done at 1pm I think that I remember
It's quarter to and I've been sitting on this curb forever
Humiliated but I know that I have to surrender
My dignity 'cause otherwise I might lose you forever

you walked out with your head down
And your hoodie pulled up, looking good now
I was about to give you part of me that I could never give
But you got into your car and drove away with it

Da da da da, away with it
I was doing back in Colorado
Wasn't it enough that I came back home
Da da da da, away with it, yeah
Ay, ay yeah, ay yeah, home
Drop what I was doing back in Colorado
Da da da da, [?]
Got into your car and drove away with it, yeah

Sometimes you've just gotta live with the pain
Own up to your shit don't blame the world for your mistakes
Shut your mouth while you're listening and watch what you say
Don't expect nobody else to fix the problems in your brain
That's on you sometimes it doesn't matter what you think about it
Plenty bullshit in the world I'm sure she'll live without it
Tried to tell me that you changed, well man, I kinda doubt it
Kinda doubt it, kinda dou-doubt it

Da da da da, away with it
I was doing back in Colorado
Wasn't it enough that I came back home
Da da da da, away with it, yeah
Ay, ay yeah, ay yeah, home
Drop what I was doing back in Colorado
Da da da da, [?]
Got into your car and drove away with it, yeah

Got into your car and drove away with it, yeah
