

The Chase

SayWeCanFly

I tried everything but everything was not enough for me, wore myself thin, I couldn't find a way to fix it.
Walked a fragile line between my body and my design.
Broke my fragile spine, but I won't last alone this time.

I, I won't, I won't.
I, I won't, I won't.

Found myself in the water up to my knees.
Time won't slow down for nothin', not even for me.
Lost my soul in the chase now it ain't worth a thing
and I know I was wrong to believe that the stars ever fell down
for me.

I gave everything but everything was taken from me,
sold my spirit for poison and a happy ending.
Let the devil in, eventually he'll give you something.
Share your secrets, eventually you'll learn to love him.

I, I won't, I won't (love him so).
I, I won't, I won't.

Found myself in the water up to my knees.
Time won't slow down for nothin', not even for me.
Lost my soul in the chase now it ain't worth a thing.
And I know I was wrong to believe that the stars ever fell down
for me.

Found myself in the water up to my knees.
Time won't slow down for nothin', not even for me.
Lost my soul in the chase now it ain't worth a thing
And I know I was wrong to believe that the stars ever fell down
for me.
